

THE JOINERS COTTAGE

Having successfully completed the construction of two bespoke self-build properties in Warkworth, now thoughtfully repurposed as high-quality holiday accommodation. The builds were designed and delivered with a strong focus on craftsmanship, durability, and sympathetic integration with the surrounding Northumberland coastal setting.

The Joiner's Cottage is now available as a holiday home, offering guests sea views, a comfortable and well-finished retreat while showcasing the standard of workmanship and attention to detail that underpinned the original self-build project.

Offering ideal stays for a coastal break or a glimpse into the Northumberland dark skies

Sleeps 6 • 2 Doubles & 1 Twin
